Morgana

001 Blanco

Ref. 20927

The exquisite curtain fabric Morgana impresses with its combination of flower silhouettes and pixel-like elements, revealing its complete design when the light passes through it. At first glance everything is perfectly connected. Looking closely, the design will put all its charm on display, creating a singular decorative impact. Its richness and gracefulness is the singular result of combining opacity and transparency with burn out and printing techniques. Maybe this is not Morgana's magic, but it looks like. Burn-out.
